HURRICANE LAURA RELIEF EFFORT

Parish family members – our help is needed!

Hurricane relief efforts for Louisiana parishes is underway in our diocese!

St. Thomas in Long Beach is filling one or more 18-wheeler trailers with supplies to take to St. Raphael and other parishes in Louisiana affected by Hurricane Laura. St. Alphonsus is seeking to contribute as much as we can.

If you are able, please consider donating any of the following supplies:

Batteries	Mops and brooms
Bleach	Non-perishable food
Buckets	Paper towels
Cleaning supplies	Pet food
Diapers	Tarps
First aid items	Toilet paper
Formula	Toiletries
Garbage bags	Water bottles and jugs
Hand sanitizer	Work gloves
Masks

Supplies will be collected on the porch of Our Lady of Perpetual help Bookstore beginning today and ending at noon this Friday, September 4. There will be a sign reading "HURRICANE RELIEF SUPPLIES". Please leave any donations near it, and we will collect them daily.

If we are blessed enough to have someone who can contribute a large quantity of supplies, please contact the Rectory (228-875-5419) or Ruth McPhearson (228-324-3449) so that we can arrange for its safe storage until the end of the week. Please also call with any questions.

So many of us were blessed with the generosity and kindness of others in our recovery efforts after Katrina. Let us share those gifts now with those in need in Louisiana!

Thank you!
